MISSIONARIES TO CAMBODIA

Fall 2009

Emma's First Flight...

Considering the fact that when we fly to Cambodia we'll be on the plane for 14-16 hours, we thought it would be a good idea to take Emma on a 'test flight' to Orlando, Florida for General Council. She was glued to the window as we took off! Emma really seemed to like watching the clouds and even fell asleep just before we landed. It's good to know our little MK (Missionary Kid) likes flying!

We're still hoping to be on a plane to Cambodia by next April or May. So far, 35% of our budget has been raised and we're grateful to those who have given sacrificially to make that possible. However, we still have quite a bit to go before we'll be ready to pack our bags... so please keep us in your prayers and remember that every contribution gets us a little bit closer to boarding that plane to Cambodia!
